An intensive course designed to explore Japan’s rich cultural and business traditions within economic, social, and political contexts. Includes multiple pre-departure sessions on the Notre Dame campus and two weeks on site in Tokyo, the world’s most populated metropolis and home to more Fortune 500 companies than any other city in the world. Course topics include U.S.–Japanese business relations, approaches to business ethics, technology and innovation, and intercultural communication, among others. Other highlights include:

- Visiting important cultural heritage and corporate sites
- Meeting with senior executives of top companies
- Connecting with Japanese students and learning from Japanese scholars

FACULTY

Jessica McManus Warnell
Associate Teaching Professor
Department of Management and Organization
